DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
  - (1) Field of the Invention.
  - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Objections

1. Claim 9 is objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 9, lines 1-2, "a solvent-free pressure sensitive adhesive" is unclear to how this relates to layer of solvent-free pressure-sensitive dispersion based on polyacrylate recited in claim 1. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakagawa et al. (2001/0031355) in view of Aritake (4,513,028).

Nakagawa et al. discloses a halogen-free, phosphorus-free, flame-resistant wrapping foil of polyolefin, comprising carbon black and metal hydroxide which aluminum hydroxide ([0046]). Nakagawa et al. also discloses the metal hydroxide content being more than 120 phr ([0051 ]), the carbon black fraction being at least 5 phr ([0052]), the foil comprising at least one polypropylene having flexural modulus of less than 900 Mpa ([0040]), the foil having a thickness of 30 to 180  $\mu$ m ([0054]), the foil comprising polypropylene and also EP or EPDM copolymer, the foil having a layer of adhesive applied directly or indirectly on one side thereof, the adhesive being joined to the surface of the foil by means of a flame or corona pretreatment, and the foil being used for bundling wires or cables. Nakagawa et al. does not disclose the adhesive layer being a layer of solvent-free pressure-sensitive adhesive dispersion based on polyacrylate. Aritake discloses a wrapping foil comprising a layer of adhesive which is a layer of solvent-free pressure sensitive adhesive dispersion based on polyacrylate (col. 6, lines 66-68; col. 7, lines 1-28). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use the adhesive layer as taught by Aritake for the adhesive layer of Nakagawa et al. since it is taught by Nakagawa et al. that any adhesive ([0057]) can be used with the foil and the adhesive taught by Aritake can be easily applied to a substrate and provides an adequate adhesion property (Aritake, col. 6, lines 46-53). Noted that the claimed characteristics and properties of the foil are inherent from the modified foil of Nakagawa et al. since it comprises structure and material as claimed.

It would also have been obvious to one skilled in the art to choose suitable amount, the bond strength, and the unwind force for the adhesive layer of Nagakawa et al. to meet the specific use of the resulting foil since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Summary

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
